

Cardinal Mooney High School CMHS

A message from Cardinal Mooney President, Thomas Maj:

Over the Thanksgiving break our COVID numbers have increased, so I'm extending remote instruction through next week, Dec. 4th. Instead of remote learning ending on Tuesday, it will end on Friday. As of last week, those additional days will allow all students with positive cases and those quarantined to return to in-person classes.

REMINDER

REMOTE INSTRUCTION CONTINUES THROUGH FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4

PLEASE KEEP IN MIND WHEN IN PUBLIC:

- Wear masks.
- Practice social distancing.
- Be aware of symptoms — especially the loss of taste or smell.
- Do not wait to test if you have symptoms.

An Advent prayer for courage

Dear Heavenly Father,
Help me to hear your voice.
Touch me once again.
Give me the courage to be your beloved.
Give me courage to choose joy.
I need you now this Christmas.
Be born in me again. Today.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

"Giving Tuesday" is part of our Annual Appeal. This new initiative seeks to take generosity and amplify it ... to take passion and focus it, and to harvest its impact year after year.

I'm pleased and grateful that we have an opportunity to double the impact with a generous matching gift up to $25,000.

Your contribution nourishes the best in our students, in Mooney, and in our community. Where giving thrives, Mooney thrives.

Thank you for considering Mooney for your charitable contributions.

Murphy cousins

a family bonded by faith, tradition

Cousins Mark Phillips, Carolyn Kay, and John Murphy were born within five months of each other in 2001, and went to Catholic school together all the way through 2019 when they graduated from Cardinal Mooney.

The trio is just a small part of a family that has graced Cardinal Mooney for decades. It all began when grandparents John and Joanne Murphy started a family with seven children who all went to St. Dom's and Cardinal Mooney.

Please read about how Carolyn, Mark, and John have continued a Cardinal Mooney legacy that includes TEN of John and Joanne's grandchildren.

Cardinal Mooney would like to thank John, Joanne, and their entire family for their lasting dedication to our school. As with all of our families, you have helped weave the fabric of our tradition.
